MEET XAVIER, A UNITED WAY SUCCESS.

He's headed to college soon. His paycheck helps cover household bills and buys his siblings' clothes and school supplies. He mentors young boys and he understands what it means to 'give back' to his community.

But life wasn't always bright for 18 year old Xavier, one of five children, whose father is in prison. While his Mom found United Way partner agency programs to help with housing, food and utilities, Xavier wanted a safe place for his siblings to play, a part-time job, and help with school work.

Fortunately, Xavier found a United Way partner agency that met his needs. Xavier has held his job working with youth for two years. He was inducted into the National Honor Society at school. Xavier heads a student community service group and has been involved in the Triangle's MLK Day of Service as well as other volunteer projects.

Xavier and his family, as well as many others, have found the path to turn their lives around.

With your contribution to United Way, more people like Xavier will find the help they need to succeed!
