

Efforts are concentrated in two specific zones where there is a greater incidence of poverty.

“We all dream big for our kids.”

FAMILY SUCCESS ALLIANCE

Collaborative Focus :
Early Childhood Success

Geographic Focus :
Orange County

Big Idea :
Create a pipeline of support for children and families from birth to career

updated 9/2017

COMMUNITY IMPACT PARTNERS:

BOOMERANG

Life skills for youth

CHAPEL HILL CARRBORO PUBLIC SCHOOL FOUNDATION

Literacy sessions in zone schools; children's books and home visits for literacy support

CHAPEL HILL TRAINING OUTREACH PROJECT, INC.

CHILD CARE SERVICES ASSOCIATION

Education and referral services to assist in finding and selecting high quality childcare, scholarship services, professional development and on-site support for pre-k classrooms

COMPASS CENTER

Individual financial counseling, financial education workshops, individual career counseling, career preparedness workshops

EL FUTURO, INC.

Bilingual mental health treatment, school-based behavioral consultations, parent support and workshops

EMPOWERMENT INC.

Summer internship opportunities for youth

GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scout Community Outreach program, badge activity, and one week summer day camp

KIDSCOPE

Mental health assessment and treatment; parenting education programs

ORANGE COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENT

Partnership coordination

17% of children in Orange County live in poverty.

ORANGE COUNTY PARTNERSHIP FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

Early childhood development and educational guidance

ORANGE LITERACY COUNCIL

Family Literacy Program, basic literacy, GED preparation, digital literacy and English language instruction

VOLUNTEERS FOR YOUTH

Mentoring for youth

PATHWAYS TO PROGRESS: THE TWO-GENERATIONAL MODEL

- Children are prepared for school
- Children and youth are healthy and succeed in school
- Youth graduate from high school and college
- Families and neighborhoods support the healthy development of children

United Way of the Greater Triangle supports 17 Collaborative Partners focusing on Youth Success (Y), Early Childhood Success (E), and Stable Homes (S).

Together we are #getting2YES.

United Way of the Greater Triangle

@uwtriangle #Uniting4Good